Dear Friends,

We hope that you and yours will join us for the United Jewish People's Order (UJPO) & Morris Winchevsky School's secular humanistic celebrations of the Jewish New Year at the Winchevsky Centre.

Our community observances of Rosh Hashonah and Yom Kippur include the traditional shofar blowing, readings, poetry, and Yiddish, Hebrew and English music led by well-known Toronto musicians — David Wall (vocals) and Marilyn Lerner (piano) — includes the Kol Nidre on Yom Kippur,

We also offer special holiday programs for children ages 3-12.

Holiday refreshments are served at the conclusion of our Rosh Hashonah observance.

Please consider donating to our 'Gut Yor' (Good Year) campaign. Your donations will support two new and exciting projects: youth organizing and an adult B'nai Mitzvah program. Your support of these initiatives is much appreciated.

We look forward to ushering in the New Year with you!

A Gut Yor,

Rachel Epstein
Executive Director

The Winchevsky Centre unfortunately is not wheelchair accessible at this time, but a chairlift is available.
